This is a collaborative project that aims to archive and preserve the schedules and events surrounding the Boomerang network, from its humble beginnings in 2000, to today. Not only do we accurately archive which shows aired on what day, but with its respective episode and image. All information presented on this wiki is accurately researched from reliable sources, such as newspapers and airings that currently are in circulation. At this time, this wiki is a work in progress, but it's growing bigger everyday. Visit the main archive here and explore. To find out how you can contribute and help us grow, please visit our help page. Very special thanks to CDCB2 and the folks over at Nickstory Archives, CN/AS Archives and Toon Disney/Jetix Archives whose passion for video archiving was a major inspiration for this wiki. This wiki project was created for special interest and archival purposes, not affiliated with Turner Broadcasting or its networks. Joined Apr 9, 2005 Messages 10,694 Location New England uh-uh, I got CN only a few years ago(Or, at least when i learned i had it) and i didn't tape the time it was airing at 2:30PM a year or so back Joined Jan 1, 2007 Messages 1,330 Location Aboard the Absolution Well trust me, it's a really really good cartoon. As happy as I am to have it on Boomerang after seeing it so many years ago, I would also like some burgers and chicken, uh, I mean Cow & Chicken. Joined Apr 9, 2005 Messages 10,694 Location New England I saw the intro on RetroJunk, and it looks really good. Ya, I'm suprised they put on Mike, Lu, and Og before cow and Chicken. Actually, it looks like MLO is off, Thank God, that show wasn't too great EDIt: My Eyes betray me again Last edited by a moderator: Jan 27, 2007 Joined May 2, 2004 Messages 6,757 Weekend schedule + specials added to the first post. Joined Sep 20, 2001 Messages 5,611 Location Catskills/Hudson Valley I'm gonna miss Frankenstein Jr. and the Impossibles (I managed to tape almost all the episodes), but I'll still be watching the weekend Cartoons Without a Clue as long as Batfink and Captain Caveman and the Teen Angels are on it. And I might check out Underdog and SWAT Kats, too. Gerald Mc Boing-Boing and Krypto really don't have any business being on Boomerang--unless they're trying to revive Tickle U again...Which we all hope had BETTER NOT HAPPEN!!! Joined Aug 14, 2006 Messages 204 Location Washington, USA Well, I at least look forward to Swat Kats. Krypto the Superdog on Boomerang? Already??? I know what you mean! Really it doesn't make any since, because for one thing Krypto and Baby Looney Tunes both continue to have time slots on the CN schedule. Yeah, I disaprove on this. I don't like GMBB being on Boomerang either. Hopefully this won't last too long. Had definitely been at or around the time Keegan posted the schedule above. On the subject @superkeegan9100, may I ask the favor of posting where that info came from? I'm interested in seeing. Thanks in advance! Joined Jul 22, 2014 Messages 4,691 Location Bucharest, Romania I found a 2006 schedule that includes Garfield: Weekdays effect.
